59c. for $1 Silk Eoliennes.

Buying in advance of your needs, when the importers wanted to sell, we were able to command some very remarkable advantages, among which are these beautiful, soft, lustrous Silk Eoliennes. Besides being very handsome, it is counted among the most fashionable dress materials for fall and winter.

They are strictly perfect goods, in the following desirable shades:

Navy blue, royal blue, gray, brown, black, and also the much desired cream.

The identical quality will be found selling everywhere else at one dollar a yard

Tomorrow we offer it at the sensationally low price of 59c. a yard.

$1.19 54-in. Panamas, 69c.

Another remarkable bargain in strictly up-to-date and desirable dress fabrics at equally as large savgs as the Eoliennes at 59c.

Yard and a half wide All-wool Imported French Panamas, in blue and brown. Very finest texture and finish.

Nothing you can buy will make up into a handsomer or more stylish gown for the coming season. This quality never sold under $1.19 a yard. Tomorrow at 69c. a yard.

Remarkable Embroidery Selling.

A sale that offers the newest style Embroideries at half price and thereabouts. They are the impor-'s overplus lots-crisp, brand new styles that every woman will admire and wish to possess.

The various lots enumerated b clow are but part of the purchase, which includes Cambric, Swiss and Nainsook Edgings, Insertings, Beadings, Flouncings, Baby Patterns-and, in fact, every sort of Embroidery which will be used the coming season.

On bargain tables and at Embroidery Department.

40c. Mattings, 19c. Yard

Mattings have grown in popular favor, so that now they are used as an all-the-year-'round floor covering instead of carpets. This special underprice offering enables sensible housewives to provide the finest quality Matting at less than half the established price.

The lot consists of extra fine grade close-woven linen warp Japanese Matting, in a variety of very handsome designs, including red, green and blue carpet patterns. No furniture store sells such Matting for less than 40c, a yard. Our price for this lot, 19c, a yard.

Sale of Portieres. $3.98 Values $6 to $8.98 a Pair. . . .

Just 50 pairs—a little lot the manufacturer closed out to us at a loss because he will not duplicate the styles again this season. They are very little different in design from those which will be on sale a few weeks later at the higher valuations.

The lot consists of very fine quality Silk Mercerized Tapestry Portleres, in plain colors and figures. No handsomer Portieres are to be found in the city selling at $6.00 to $8.98 a pair. The mercerizing is particularly fine-and gives the exact appearance of the costliest silk fabrics. Fringed ends.

A not-to-be-repeated opportunity to secure fine draperies for the winter home at less than wholesale cost.

 THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

MISS ROOSEVELT'S EXPERIENCES IN THE LAND OF THE MIKADO.

Another Engagement of Interest Here -The Walsh Tragedy-Personal Notes.

Miss Roosevelt, according to the special correspondence of the New York World, Secretary Taft and other members of the party were presented with handsome gifts of embroidery, etc., by the mikado, including most handsome draperies for Mrs. Taft, who is not with the party. Rich gifts of sliver and art pieces were given to Miss Receivelt and her companions, Misses Boardman and McMillan, and all the guests were presented with bonbon boxes and other mementoes. During the morning a number of ladies of the Japanese nobility had called at the American legation to pay their respects, by card only, to Miss Ecosevelt and her companions. Learning that among them was Mme. Togo, wife of the famous admiral, Miss Roosevelt asked that she might see her personally. So the ladies were induced to remain and be presented to the American ladies, and Mme. Togo was showered with attentions from the visitors.

Miss Roosevelt was the guest of the American minister and Mrs. Griscom at their legation. The emperor and empress, after receiving the entire party, entertained them at luncheon. In the evening Count Katsura, the prime minister, gave a dinner to the party and many foreign guests, members of the immany foreign guests, members of the im-perial household and high officials. Japan-ess and American men and women sat mingled together in the handsome dining-hall of the Imperial Hotel. The next day Prince Fushini gave a not-able affair, and in the afternoon there was a garden party at the American legation, at which imperial princesses stood beside Miss Recognition the receiving line.

That evening the bankers and merchants of Toklo gave a Japanese dinner at the Maple Club surrounded by its beautiful grove. After the dinner the best actors of Japan and best geisha girls of the capital gave a performance. There was a symbolical dance in which three famous performers, representing Russia, Japan and America, the last as a woman in a kimona into which the stars and stripes were woven. Russia and Japan disputed, then fought with swords, whereupon America inter-vered with a happy finale. The third and ast day in Tokyo included a luncheon given by Count Teraouchi, minister of war, and his wife, at the Arsenal Garden.

The widespread sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh in the death of their young son has been expressed in a thousand forms since Saturday night, and the sand forms since saturday night, and the news today that the injuries sustained by Miss Evelyn Walsh, while serious, will gradually yield to treatment, is the only ray of comfort which these sorrowing parents can see at this time. It seems to be understood that as soon as the condition of their daughter will permit, the family will leave Newport, which has been the scene of the greatest sorrow of their lives. Young Vinson Walsh was a bright boy, indulged in every fancy by his parents, and yet had as steady a head as any boy could keep in the midst of such allurements. He was fond of acting, and his theatrical troupe, the Garrick Club, of which he was the star performer in the different presentations, first in the loft in the spacious carriage house, and latterly in the theater which was arrayed on the top floor of the Massachusetts avenue mansion, gave a great deal of innocent pleasure to all participating in or witnessing the fun. He was devoted to his sister, and it was very rare he was seen in his automobile without her company Since coming here to live, Mr. and Mrs Walsh have given pleasure to hundreds, and on every side are heard expressions of sympathy in their bereavement.

The engagement of William Brock Schoe maker and Miss Ella M. De Peyster, youngest daughter of Mrs. Frederick J. De Peyster, has just been announced. She made her debut two or three years ago, and through her father, who died very sud-denly last spring at Lakewood, N. J., is de-scended from Johannes de Peyster of Holland, who emigrated to this country in the seventeenth century. Frederick De Peyster was president of the Holland and St. Nicholas societies. William B. Schoemaker is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Schoemaker, and was graduated from Co-lumbia three years ago. He is in the banking business in New York, and has lived until now with his parents, at their house, in West 53d street, and at their country place, at Riverside, Conn.

TWO WILLS FILED.

Bequests Made by Mrs. Alice Bland

Wills of the late Alice Bland McAboy, one dated April 21, 1839, and the other February 15, 1905, were filed today in the office of Register Tanner. The testatrix, by the first document, bequeathed $1,000 each to her sisters, Louise B. Legge and Johanna B. Sawyer, and the remainder of her estate to her husband. Theodore N. McAboy. The

Mrs. McAboy executed the second paper-writing just prior to starting on an ocean voyage. By its terms she directed that should her husband survive her, $10,-000 be paid to her sister, Johanna B. Saw-yer, and the remainder to Mr. McAboy. It was provided that in the event of the prior decease of Mr. McAboy, her sister, Louise B. Legge should receive the income of $5,000. Bequests were also made to other
